volunteer open house.

Join us on Saturday, October 19th to learn about volunteer opportunities at the Elfin Forest Recreational Reserve and surrounding open spaces. Learn about the Interpretive Center's interactive displays, explore the trails, and meet other volunteers who are part of our program.

There are many volunteer programs to choose from—whether you'd prefer to monitor hiking trails, assist park visitors, educate youth, or work on local restoration projects. Discover the perks of volunteering with us and find out which program is best for you!

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19TH
